

Encoding/Decoding Practice

Week 8: inflectional endings (d, ed)

- ★ Please have your child read the sentences and/or decodable passage each night.
- ★ You can use the underlined words to practice spelling.

I ripped my pants when I kicked the ball.

He bleached his dirty white shirt.

We clapped after she performed.

Mom washed the dishes after dinner.

Heart Words

wanted

The Smoothies

Jen went to see her friend Tess. It was hot outside so Tess said, "We can go out and have some fun, but I think we should have blended smoothie." So Jen and Tess crafted some grand smoothies. Then they went out to swing. They put the smoothies on the bench by Jen's dog, Russ. The bench was a bit slanted. "We can swing, and then we will drink," said Tess. When they were swinging, Russ pushed one of the drinks off the slanted bench. "Oh no," said Tess. "I should not have trusted Russ with the drinks." "Do not be cross with Russ. He was hot too," said Jen. "You can have some of my blended smoothie."